

Debt collection in Colombia

JURISCONSULTOS
LAW FIRM

Pioneers in international debt collection in Colombia

About us

Jurisconsultos SAS is a Colombian Law firm, based in Bogotá D.C. Since 2013, Jurisconsultos has been pioneer in services related with collection of international debts in Colombia.

Our team of professionals and experts aim their efforts and work to the effective collection of debts, without damaging or hurting commercial relations between our clients and debtors, through quick and adequate solutions. Our Collection Plan covers all steps from amicable phase to litigious proceedings, including representation our clients' interests at insolvency, bankruptcy and debtor's reorganization proceedings.

Our services diminish the additional difficulties posed by cultural differences, exchange rates, and diverse legal frameworks, to the usual problems associated with payments.

Our assets

Jurisconsultos services are backed up by:

- Experience in collection industry in Colombia since 2013.
- An expert and effective team of professionals formed in Colombian Law and practices.
- Communication in both English and Spanish.
- Trust and confidence from our clients.
- Continuity of business and economic relations between creditor and debtor as a guide for our actions.

Services

We offer four different and interrelated services: credit-standing research and solvency studies; amicable collection; litigious collection and representation at insolvency, bankruptcy and reorganization proceedings.

Credit-standing research and solvency studies

Our Firm offers a complete credit-standing research of potential business partners, aimed to give our clients the possibility of taking good and informed decisions. We believe that an adequate knowledge about your prospective client's solvency capacity, will contribute to solid and successful investments.

An adequate study plus the best legal advice its fundamental to success of your business plan.

These services will also allow to determine the current debtor 's economic situation and prospective. The solvency study will also consent to determine the viability of any litigious proceedings and will help in success of collection.

The study includes the analysis of qualitative and quantitative aspects, based on:

- Credit History
- Commercial data
- Financial data
- Economic and risk alerts (including felonies and money laundering alerts).

Amicable collection

Upfront to unpaid invoices and the necessity of recovering owed money, companies and businessmen need support in collecting, without harnessing their business relations. Jurisconsultos will approach debtor through amicable practices, in Spanish and according with local practices and culture. Our aim is to recover debt without the need of litigation and its costs. However, with our clients' authorization, we'll escalate to litigation if advisable. This service includes letters of demands when needed.

Our priority is to avoid litigation and maintain commercial relations between our clients and their debtors.

Litigious collection

If there is not a successful output from the amicable phase, Jurisconsultos offers its clients representation before Colombian courts. Our lawyers will give their best knowledge and efforts aimed to the effective recovery of debt. In any case, we suggest our clients to request a credit-standing research and solvency study to assess the viability of legal collection, without incurring in high costs.

High standards of our professional team guarantee an effective representation at legal proceedings

Insolvency, bankruptcy and reorganization proceedings

It's a common practice among Colombian companies to fill for bankruptcy proceedings before the Superintendency of Corporations, a government agency that acts as bankruptcy court, when businesses cannot meet their financial obligations. Bankruptcy includes: reorganization of the company, aimed to pay debts and continue with business; and liquidation, aimed to full payment of debts and the extinction of the company.

Its fundamental to creditors to be represented before Colombian Courts, guaranteeing that their credit is included in payment offer and plan to obtain their money back.

Given the complexity of Colombian Law and regulations, our Firm offers its clients practical, simplified and risk-reduction oriented solutions.

We are ready to help you- contact us!

Visit our web page, write to colombia.debtcollection@jurisconsultossas.com or call us!

JURISCONSULTOS
LAW FIRM

Address: Calle 19 # 6-68 Oficina 1309 Edificio Ángel. Bogotá D.C., Colombia
Phone +57(1) 927 71 85; Mobiles: (312)41350116 (311)3592510 or (312)4991946
www.jurisconsultossas.com